

Experiment 1: Prepare an SRS document in line with the IEEE recommended standards for the specified Case Study. (Functional Requirements)

Functional Requirement for the Art Gallery have been developed to make sure that the functionalities and functional aspects of the systems.

Login

- System will allow the user to login.
- System will verify the user name and password.
- System will not allow user to login with invalid username or password.
- System will be able to remember username and password.

Registration or create account:

- System will allow the user to create account.

Browsing and database search

- System will allow user to search image.
- System shall display the result.
- System will allow user to save the image.